Founded in 1952, the Museum is located on the bank of the South Branch of the Raritan River and is housed in an 1836 stone grist mill that is on the National and State Historic Registers.

Committed to providing programs of excellence, the Museum offers changing exhibitions of contemporary art, craft, and design, and has a growing collection of works on paper. The Museum's flourishing education program includes studio classes, workshops, summer art camps, lectures, exhibition tours, and other interpretive and outreach experiences.
